JL: Re CBS and possibility of an action of any kind against them and vis Fairness Doctrine:

How about trying to talk to Nicholas Johnson? He is, I think, a lawyer.

No picked as bad a time for medical needs as I did. He is en route to Houston and expects to be back Tuesday, which leaves me to deal with strangers, the hungup and the unknown. I am sure I promise him this stuff subject only to the protection of Ray's rights and my obligations a very long time ago. But I'm not sure and I don't know if he'll remember...In this Ray stuff there is a fantastic opportunity for Abzug. Based on our experience for the moment I'm not even going to mention it. There is no doubt at all that I promised it to Crewdson before they gave it to CBS, meaning before they gave me what I first asked for. You know I planned no further writing in King. So this leaves the Times the part of the media screwed. HW 12/3/75
